Europe's voice in corporate reporting

What you will learn

EFRAG offers financial and sustainability reporting internships or combined internships working across both areas.

- Work closely with international reporting experts at EFRAG
- Prepare outreach activities with relevant stakeholders (users, preparers, auditors, academics, IASB, European Commission, stakeholder organisations, civil society organisations, etc.)
- Participate in high-level discussions with experts
- Gain international and European experience
- Conduct research and impact analysis
- Contribute to the development of IFRS Standards
- Draft European Sustainability Reporting Standards (ESRS)

EFRAG has interns that would be happy to share their experience with you!

You will gain:

- An overview of the EFRAG's objectives and activities
- A first professional and personal experience in the dynamic world of corporate reporting standard setting and the identification of good reporting practices in an European and global environment
- Practical knowledge in your area of study

About EFRAG

EFRAG is a Non-Profit Organisation established in 2001 with the encouragement of the European Commission to serve the public interest. EFRAG's activities are organised in two pillars.

Financial Reporting Pillar: influencing the development of IFRS Standards from a European perspective and how they contribute to the efficiency of capital markets and providing endorsement advice on IFRS Standards to the European Commission.

Sustainability Reporting Pillar: developing draft EU Sustainability Reporting Standards and related amendments for the European Commission.
